

24 June 2021

Dear Students, Parents, Guardians, Partners and Stakeholders,

With the recent Bondi outbreak of new COVID-19 cases, the Premier has announced the implementation of these following restrictions from Wednesday, 23 June 2021 at 4:00pm:

- Face masks: Compulsory for all indoor venues, unless eating, including work places and public transport
- Social distancing: One person per four square metre rule for all indoor and outdoor events and settings
- Visitors: No more than five people in a home at any one time and this includes children
- Gym and dance classes: Limited to 20 people and face masks are compulsory
- Hospitality: Food must be consumed seated
- Sing and dancing: Not permitted for any venues or religious ceremonies
- Wedding: Maximum of 20 people allowed at any point in time on the dance floor (bridal party only)
- Outdoor seated events: Events such as sport will be limited to 50% capacity and face masks must be worn at all times
- Public transport: Face masks must be worn at all times and seating will only be allowed on those green dots or allocated seating. Seating capacity applies
- No travel outside Sydney: For residents in restricted Local Government Areas (LGAs), they will not be permitted to travel outside of Metropolitan Sydney.

The above mandatory restrictions apply to all Greater Sydney areas including the Central Coast, Blue Mountains, Wollongong and Shellharbour.
